Computer Networking

Required Courses

Why Choose the CNS Certificate?

This certificate prepares for the Cisco Certified Network Administrator (CCNA) exam. Those students looking to advance in their current position by gaining the CCNA certification will benefit from this program. The courses need to be taken in order from Networks 1 through Networks 4.

Admission Requirements

Any students admitted to Ferris in a Major other than Computer Networking and Systems and in good standing may enroll for this certificate.

Graduation Requirements

Students must:

- maintain a 2.00 cumulative FSU GPA.
- No more than 50% of the credits in a certificate may be transferred from another institution.
- A minimum grade of C- is required for each course in the certificate.
