

Creative Writing Minor • Minor

Why Chose the Creative Writing Minor?

A Minor in Creative Writing enhances any professional program. In addition to developing a student's writing, creative thinking, research, and literacy skills, a minor in creative writing provides the basis for imaginative and fulfilling avocations, as well as, potential for self-employment or professional development. No profession is without writers, and many of today's best selling authors are primarily employed in other occupations, including business, medicine, criminal justice, public administration and education.

Admission Requirements

This Creative Writing minor is open to any student admitted to Ferris State and pursuing a baccalaureate degree. The minor is designed to complement any Ferris major program.

Graduation Requirements

An academic minor may only be awarded upon completion of a baccalaureate degree at Ferris State University, except those pursuing a B.A. in English Composition. This minor requires a minimum of 18 credits with a minimum 2.0 grade average in these courses. At least 50 percent of the credits of the minor must be Ferris State University credits.
