

Elementary Endorsement to Secondary Provisional Certificate • Certificate

Why Choose the Elementary Endorsement to Secondary Provisional Certificate?

This program is designed for persons with an Elementary Provisional Certificate who are seeking a Secondary Endorsement. Students seeking this endorsement must complete all major/minor requirements for secondary provisional certification and also have a course that focuses on early adolescents and adolescents.

Students adding this endorsement must pass the state mandated subject area test in their major/minor.

This program may be used to satisfy the 'planned program' requirements for a professional certificate. Please contact the School of Education Certification Officer at (231) 591-5375 for additional information on state requirements.
